The Fair To-Day.

The public is reminded that to-day will close the exhibition of the Lafayette county fair; and to those who have not had an opportunity of attending, we would say the day's proceedings promise to be as interesting as any previous one. For the information of those not present, we append the proceedings, by their headings only:

Best saddle stallion stock.

In these rings, the premiums range from $10 to $15.

Sweepstakes—Best saddle stallion, $50.00.

Best saddle mare 25.00.

Best blooded stallion stock.

In this ring, the premiums range from $10 to $20.

Sweepstakes—Best stallion, all purpose, $100.00.

Best mare, $50.00.

Slowest horse, $10.

Grand Tournament, $50.

This will close the fair for this year, but, from the marked success that has every day been manifested, it will by no means be the last. The Association will go forward; and at the next meeting will be enabled to increase its premiums and its usefulness.

The large number of premiums awarded outside of the county, shows that the directory are not at all chargeable, as is usually the case, with a gormand or "phone conservation." This impartiality must have a effect upon the future of the Association.

The Virginia Election.

The election for delegates to the convention of Virginia, occurred on the 22d. Of course there was rioting, especially at Richmond, where the radicals attempted to mob conservatives, and drove them from the polls. The military saved the city from a general roar. At Lynchburg, negroes that voted the conservative ticket, were assaulted, and a general roar was only prevented by the soldiers—so pretty showing for the new treason.

At Norfolk, it is thought WALTERS, cons., is elected. From Alexandria, HUNTERSON and McKEESEY, negro, are elected. Louis, Culpeper, and Orange, reported radical. At Lynchburg, the negroes were absent, while one word for the conservatives. Rockbridge county voted for the conservatives. Augusta county do. We give a couple of extracts.

"At Lynchburg, the living of negroes, who voted the conservative ticket, were threatened by blacks, and in a disturbance caused by them, three negroes were wounded. After a time order was restored by the military and civil authorities.

"New York, Oct. 22. A special Richmond despatch to the Telegraph says the polls in each ward are crowded by voters, white and black. In three of the five wards the conservative ticket is from fifty to one hundred. The negro voters are preventing the voting of the conservatives ticket. In Jackson county at half past 3 this morning, a colored voter publicly voted the conservative ticket. When the polls he was assailed by a mob of Hunnonton radicals, who threatened to hang him to the nearest lamp post. He was chased from the place of voting, and when the civil police intervened the mob offered resistance. Clubs were used on both sides for a short time, when the military came up. The infantry with fixed bayonets and the cavalry with drawn sabres charged and dispersed the mob. The ring leaders were arrested and lodged in the station house. Fear of the soldiery prevented any attempt to release them. No disturbance occurred up to this time at any other place of voting. The tobacco manufacturers and other places where negro labor is employed are closed, the employees refusing to work until the election is over. Bodies of troops are stationed at different points in the city, and will preserve order. The excitement is intense."

The whole thing goes just as wise men expected it to go.

ALEXANDRIA, Oct. 23.—Lewis, conservative, is elected to the convention over Balwin, radical, in Prince William county, by a majority of 161. Many, conservative, is elected to the convention over John Minor Botts, radical, in Culpeper county, by 62 a carry.

Stafford county gives 310 majority against the convention.

Warrenton gives 60 radical majority, though some have gone to the conservatives.

Fairfax county gives the radicals a majority of 100.

Loisda county gives a conservative majority of 72.

Washington, Oct. 23.—A telegram to the Richmond Daily Dispatch, yesterday, says:

"The election in this city progressed quietly until 3 p.m., when an alarm occurred that caused a great deal of excitement. Mr. Norton, colored, who voted the conservative ticket, was assailed by radical negroes, but was overtaken at the market house by his pursuers, who, threatening his life, compelled a violent attack upon him. Norton drew a revolver and fired two shots, wounding three of the leading negroes. A majority of the conservatives are elected in the valley of Virginia.

At the election in this State, next year, our people will be called upon to vote upon negro suffrage. One of the objects of registration here, was to pose the disposal of that question in their hands, i.e., in hands that would vote in its favor. The Abolitionists are pledged to its support, just as much, and even more, than the democrats and conservatives are pledged against it. The radical majority of the last trial was a large one, and it will require best efforts of the opposition to beat it down. To do this, what is most needed is effective organization. This ought to be done at once. The grand association of colored men, now working everywhere, and they are not only working in the great way of a political party, but they are also working in the cause of their designs against liberty as dark as their souls, outlandish, and traitorous—order. They have arms, and may use them sometime when we are least looking for it; and therefore becomes the more necessary to be ready at all points for their assaults, by them, their ballot or bayonets. Let us organize.

It is stated that Mr. SWANSON has gone to New York to raise a new conservative republican party, or in other words, to endeavor to manage so to elect the legislature, in which, now, the New York Herald says, is the name of the President. We hope to still have his pains for his labor.

OPENING DAY.

The fair in this country opened on Tuesday last, under very auspicious and encouraging circumstances. But, as is natural at this time, and perhaps most other times, the attendance was not large, nor was the exhibition so large as desired. Still, the fair was quite acceptable in regard to both, and all persons, off very pleasantly and profitably, notwithstanding a great many articles for which premiums were offered had no exhibitors. This was also true in the four rings for animals.

We annex the business of the day:
